Photography portfolio: show us both day and night photography if relevant, portraits are very welcome too. You will be photographing people a lot, so your ability to take good photos of people is as important as landscapes.

You may think night photography is challenging... but beware, day photography can be even more. The weather here can change fast and sometimes the light can be challenging.

Technical skills: specify which software you are familiar with in photo and film editing and your level of experience, if relevant.

Language: specify your proficiency both spoken and written.

Cheers
