WORK ABOVE THE ARCTIC CIRCLE

TOUR PREPATION & PACK DOWN | PERFECT STUDENT JOB

What Wandering Owl is looking for

We are looking for team members that are serious about working as part of a team. Tourism in Tromsø is exciting & different everyday, however it comes with challenges. Our high season is over Christmas, so everyone is expected to work during this time. If you are available & love being part of something exciting, this might be the Nest for you.

The requirements

- Comfortable with speaking English all our operations are in English.
- Comfortable with preparing equipment, cleaning & organising equipment & workspaces, & with stock takes.
- Comfortable preparing meals & following recipes.
- Be a respectful & mindful person & see each other as equally important spokes on a moving wheel.
- Willingness to learn "Owl ways".
- Eager to work in nature based transformational tourism.

about the position

Important information about the position

- All positions require full availability during Christmas.
- Position start date is October 1st and training will be conducted the first week of October.
- The position is on call and some of the tasks and hours can be flexible.
- Aurora Hunts are our most popular activity & are our "bread & butter". This means most of the shifts will be preparing for or packing down from an Aurora Hunt. The suits, boots, vehicles and meals for this tour must be ready by 5.30pm each night we have a confirmed tour. We ask you to join an Aurora Hunt in early October to see what it is you are part of.
- The applicant does not need to be an equipment master already, training is required.
- You must be allowed to work in Norway (i.e. from a Schengen or EEA/EU nation).
- This is a great position for a student as the shift duration is usually 3 hours, 3 days a week and 4 to 6 hours 2 days per week.

What next?

Hiring process

Between April & August we are hiring our team for the winter season. We will be hiring several different guides, office workers & logistic/kitchen personnel to fulfil our needs. There may be some time between applying & hearing back from us, this is because we are a small team & we receive many applications. During this time our office will also close for 3 weeks for our vacation.

If we are interested in your application, we'll reach out & arrange an interview either in person or via Teams.
